Synopsis: Lezley Havard's "Hide and Seek" blends past mysteries with the present as it probes into the chilling secrets that an old abandoned farmhouse yields — only at great peril to the present occupants. The collision between the real and the supernatural forces is set in motion when a couple expecting their first child encounters inexplicable problems as they try to refurbish an old farmhouse. Lights fail, the plumbing malfunctions, and the pregnant wife sees a young girl swinging silently in the yard. As the mysteries pile up, the young couple find themselves threatened in ways they never imagined.

Needed for Hide and Seek:

An old woodburning stove (the pot-bellied kind) and an old gas stove - preferably from 1930's - 1940's, usually up on legs with the oven raised equal with the burners...looked almost like an L on it's side.
 refrigerator - rounded edges (like 1950's)..but could be even up to tacky 1970's avocado, harvest gold, etc.
 Shaker style dining table and chairs (4 chair min.)
 ladder-back rocking chair
 corner hutch...old wood-style like in farmhouses..

Upcoming Auditions:

Sorry, Wrong Chimney
 by Jack Sharkey & Leo W. Sears
 Directed by Jada August
 Assistant Director Julle Owen
 Auditions Oct 18 & 19 7pm
 Performances Dec 4 - 20

Synopsis:

It's 10 days before Christmas and David Tuttle has secretly been moonlighting as a department store Santa so that he can buy his wife a fur for Christmas. He tells her he's working late at the office but she suspects his late nights at the office are an excuse to sneak out to have an affair. A suspected other woman, nosy neighbors, a slightly off balance Santa burglar and his tough, gum chewing, gun toting fiancée, and a hypnotized policeman who thinks he's a Chippendale dancer, add up to a rollicking lighthearted tale that is full of mistaken identities and zany foul ups, with a smattering of slapstick.

Characters: Suggested ages 25 to 50 but all will be considered.

David Tuttle: A struggling young executive; some physical comedy required

Samantha Tuttle: His suspicious bride of 6 months; appears in sexy pj's; physical comedy

Natalie Weldon: The Tuttle's flamboyant neighbor across the hall; physical comedy

William Weldon: Natalie's psychiatrist husband

Kris Kreigle: A simple man with a holiday delusion that he is Santa Claus; physical comedy

Sheila: Kris's doggedly devoted, gum-smacking, gun-toting fiancée; physical comedy

Policeman: A determined disciple of Law and Order; appears in boxers

Directors/Plays Needed for the PLT 56th Season

Directors who wish to be considered for the 56th season should submit by September 30th. Directors may submit up to three plays for consideration. Musicals, comedies, mysteries, romantic farce, drama, seasonal plays (especially Christmas and Halloween), or period plays are favorites of our audiences. A resume of directing experience or assistant directing experience must be included with the plays submitted. Please submit one copy (more would be appreciated) of each play you are proposing, along with your concept for the production including: set requirements, characters, royalties (estimate for musicals if this info is not available), and any special production needs. If you have time conflicts for directing or time preferences, please include this information with your submittal. You may drop your packet off at the theatre, 4318 Allen-Genoa Road, or submit the packet to Julie Owen, head of the Play Selection Committee, or mail them to Pasadena Little Theatre, P. O. Box 4193, Pasadena, TX, 77502. Additional Details available at www.pasadenalittletheatre.org

Did You Know?

After more than a month of pain, numerous X-rays made and always a diagnosis of "Muscle spasms," when they wanted to send her home. Memorial Hermann Emergency Room came up with the same diagnosis, Clara Clay pitched a fit when they tried to stand her up so she could get in the wheel chair, screamed in pain and they said, "Okay, let's get a Cat Scan." That was when they found her broken left hip. She now has a Partial Hip Replacement and is in ManorCare SharpView located at 7505 Bellerive. Her Phone number is (713) 541-7316. She is there for prolonged physical therapy and there are times every day when she will be away from her bed and the phone. Here's to a speedy (pain free) recovery!

How Can You Help at PLT?

Anne Bryant, 2nd Vice President, needs help with selling tickets for the raffle baskets for PLT performances. You do not have to stay for intermission if you are not staying for the show. This is a way to help raise money to support PLT. We also need volunteers to help put the baskets together. Donate items! Contact local businesses for contributions! Will you help? Contact Anne at: abryant@archgh.org

Vanessa Pearson, House Manager, needs your help as a parking lot attendant for all performances at PLT. If you can help for one or more performances contact her at littledoll72676@yahoo.com.

You can always contact the directors of any of our productions to find out about opportunities to help out backstage, with sets, costumes, lights, sound, etc.

PLT directors, officers and managers please email opportunities for our members to get involved in helping out at PLT.
